

School Presentation / Workshop with Jacqueline Alcántara:

"I'm open! Pass! Shoot! So close!" Come learn and play with illustrator and educator Jacqueline Alcántara. Presentation includes powerpoint on her process, research and technique for making "The Field". Showing students her materials, sketches and artistic process. Students will participate in a drawing warm up exercise followed by learning to draw Jackie's favorite character from the book.

*For grades 1-3 option to include activity/discussion on "How A Book Gets Made" where we learn how the publishing process is like a team sport - just like soccer!

Pre-K / K

Intro

Re-read "The Field"

Show and Tell: materials, sketches, research and discuss artistic process

Drawing Demonstration

Total: 30 minutes

Grades 1-3

Intro

Discussing the role of an illustrator through my process of making "The Field"

Drawing Demo: warm up exercise (students will follow along)

Show and Tell: materials, sketches, research and discuss artistic process

Drawing Demo (students will follow along)

Total: 35-45 min

TEACHER RESOURCE GUIDES AVAILABLE AT WWW.JACQUELINEALCANTARA.COM

Praise for “The Field”

“The vibrant illustrations are vividly detailed... A wonderful depiction of a joyful pastime that so many love to play all over the world, and a reminder of some of the ways we are more alike than different.” — Booklist, starred

“The text bursts with infectious joy... Irresistible fun.” — Kirkus Reviews, starred

“This engaging book is sure to resonate with children who are passionate about soccer and even those who simply enjoy lively play.” — School Library Journal

“A boisterous and unfettered love of futbol is at the heart of this energetic picture book from debut talents Paul and Alcántara... Alcántara’s kinetic illustrations reflect the joy and camaraderie that the game brings to the young players.” — Publishers Weekly

